

VISIT TO LOCAL HERITAGE MUSEUM OF BIOGRAD NA MORU, AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE OLIVE & WINE AND TURKISH HAN

The Local Heritage Museum of Biograd na Moru bears witness to the rich history of this small coastal town. It also houses a huge attraction, the cargo from the sunken ship Gagliana grossa (Gnalić Shipwreck) from the 16th century. We will reveal the story of a merchant ship that departed Venice for Constantinople in 1583 carrying many valuable items for Sultan Murat III which sank in the waters of Biograd to a depth of 26 to 30 meters. This is one of the most significant underwater finds in the Adriatic Sea. After the visit to the museum and a short tour around lovely Biograd we will continue our tour and visit a Han of Jusuf Maskovic, the westernmost point of the Ottoman civil architecture in Europe. Inside of the Han we will have lunch and taste some Turkish baklava made in the Croatian way, accompanied by the most famous drink of the Zadar Region - maraschino liqueur. At the end we will take you on a small tour around the countryside that will finish at the local Agricultural Cooperative „Olive and Wine“ where you will get the chance to visit the estate and taste some of their products and wines.
